Re: Jane Marks v. Club Med Sales, Inc., et al.
Docket No.: 09-CV-4752

Dear Judge Peck:

This office represents the plaintiff in the above-referenced action. Please accept this letter as a joint request for a final adjournment of the Settlement Conference presently scheduled for Thursday, January 5th, 2012. I very much apologize to the Court but have not yet ascertained plaintiff's medical bills and applicable liens without which fruitful discussions regarding settlement cannot be held.

In addition I, as well as defendant's counsel, had mistakenly believed that the conference had been adjourned and therefore did not prepare a settlement memo. It is therefore requested that a final adjournment be granted until the end of this month in order that I have the necessary information to engage in productive settlement discussions.

My apologies again to the Court.

Very truly yours,
